

Und dann geht das Eselchen ...

2014, MS CUTTY JEAN, Sliema Bay, Malta

Für meinen kleinen, großen Bruder, Jörn

All In!!

You played with cards
And you played with your wife
You played with hearts
And you played with your life
And now? you put all In

And you always kept on saying this thing:
„Sometimes you loose and sometimes you win“
And then? You put all In

But you couldn't fight against this feeling and You couldn't win against your thirsty throat so you threw all in

Now you are playing cards with the old Saint Peter
And you showing them what a litre Beer or whisky is

You trusted the ways of other people
Covered lies, - bluffed hand preachers and You?

You put all in
And You? You put all in!
And You? You put all in!

You were going first just to set up the way
For the others which will follow one day

And now? we put all in!

Now you are playing cards with the old Saint Peter
And you win and we win

And you win - everything!

Let's you're charming down all the pretty angels
On the clouds and the stars in the sky, all babes

And you win all of them!

Come on Saint Peter, it's your turn now
The chips are on the table and the blinds are out

And you? I put ALL IN
And you? We put ALL IN
And you? Let's put ALL IN ....
